Mailing address: P.O. Box 1771 Loomis, CA 95650

Services Offered

Provides mediation
Mediation is a way for people to work out their problems and arrive at mutually agreeable resolutions with the help of trained, impartial mediators who facilitate productive, future focused communication between the parties.
Mediation is a better way to settle differences than a costly and time consuming court battle, calling in an authority figure, or enduring an ongoing conflict.
It is a voluntary, confidential settlement process which allows you to control the decisions which affect your family, business, finances, and life rather than having an outcome imposed by a third party.

Eligibility Requirements

PDRS does not provide services in cases with violence of any kind or situations where drugs, alcohol, or mental health issues play a role.

Geographic Area Served

Placer County

Fees

Most fees for service are based on a sliding scale determined by gross annual household income for each party in two-party disputes with no attorney involvement. Ask about fees for more complex or multi-party disputes or disputes with attorney involvement
